SAINT PATTY'S DAY PUB CRAWL

March 17, 2010, Grand Rapids

The saint, the shamrock & the wearin' o' the green

Here is a list of West Michigan pubs paying tribute to the Emerald Isle. Slainte!

In the past, the Irish celebrated Saint Patrick's Day as a religious feast. They devoted March 17 to the patron saint who converted many of his countrymen to Christianity. According to legend, St. Patrick used the shamrock as a tool to describe the Trinity, though now it is portrayed as a symbol of Irish nationalism. After the transition from Irish holy day to worldwide wearin' o' the green festival, even those not of Irish descent enjoy spirit, lively music and traditional fare from the land where shamrocks grow ... and West Michigan is doing its part to pay homage.

Traditional Irish toast

"May the blessings outnumber the shamrocks that grow, and may trouble avoid you wherever you go"

Drink Responsibly.
